

I do think there is too much violence on television, HOWEVER, I do NOT think it's the US Governments position to control how every child is raised. I'm not saying that any child should be subject to that kind of television but I am saying that the FCC is already way beyond what it should be able to control. The FCC alone makes our "free country" non-existant.